

With a helping hand from Claude Taylor, Stephanie Bennett, 7, displays her winning entry which was used for the President's Christmas card. He presented her with a cheque for $150 and a book for her efforts. Stephanie is the daughter of Toronto Passenger Agents Maryse Peloquin and Len McMahon.

Receiving her second prize from Dave Bedwell, Director, Winnipeg Computer Services, is Peggy Messing, 11. Her proud mother, Leslie Messing, Senior Data Base Designer, is becoming accustomed to her daughters winning prizes. Last year, Peggy's sister, Erica, placed first.

We were unable to obtain a photograph of honourable mention winner Natalie Clarke, age 9, daughter of First Officer R.W. Clarke, Toronto. Editors.

Meet the winners of the Christmas card contest

Picking up an honourable mention in the 13-15 age group is Marie Lemay, daughter of Dorval Station Attendant Pierre Lemay. Presenting the prize is Robert Cleroux, Customer Service Manager, Aircraft, Baggage & Load Services, right.

Jennifer Coles, 6, an honourable mention winner, is shown with her father, D.L. Coles, Station Agent, Sudbury.

Christine Boismenu, 5, received an honourable mention in the 5-8 age category. Presenting the prize is Stu Hall, Lead Mechanic. The Boismenu family is shown, from the left: Dorval Mechanic Ronald; Jean-Pierre, Christine and Francoise.

First Officer and Mrs. W.G. Hunter are on hand for the presentation to their daughter Tara, 15, of her prize. Performing the honours is Captain R.A.C. Dennis, Flight Operations Director, Toronto, right.

Patrick Maloney, 11, son of Winnipeg Captain P.J. Maloney, right, is happy with his prize in the 9-12 age category, presented by Captain R.D. Christie, Flight Operations Director.